DocZone Book Publisher is an award-winning SaaS solution for content management and automated publishing. DocZone Book Publisher provides a web-based approach to maximize efficiency and profitability in the production of print and ebooks:

- Automate end-to-end publishing.
- Output to all formats in any language.
- Increase revenues, while reducing cost and turnaround time.

Increase revenues

- Faster time-to-market.
- First pages in minutes, not days or weeks.
- Expand revenue globally with automated language translation.

Reduce costs

- Replace offshore composition with fully automated cloud-based electronic production.
- Rates as low as $1/page. No charges for corrections or alterations.

Push-button publishing

- Out-of-the-box support for print, web, and ebook formats.
- No additional labor or time required.

We saw the time for PDF proofs drop from 1 week to just a few minutes. With the same amount of money as we have traditionally budgeted just for offshore composition services, we now have a complete content management and automated publishing environment.
